DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Walnut Valley Store and house is a two-story structure, built at different times but with Gothic styling used in the construction of each. The eastern most and probably original structure is a two-story frame house five bays long and two deep. In each gable is a brick inside end chimney. The central bay of the facade has a door on the first floor and a pedimented gable in the attic story. All of the sash is 2/2 and the frames have small caps. The roof also has a plain box cornice. Across the entire length of the facade is a one-story front porch with a pedimented gable in the central part of its roof.

Built against the east gable wall of the original house is a three-bay by two two-story frame store. The store has a pedimented gable in the attic story with a lancet window. To each side of the central door is a large window. The clapboard is covered with shingles.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This building was used as a residence and also a store during the late 1800's and until several years ago. While the house is not pretty it is interesting.
